

LIFE STORIES OF JESUS CHRIST(v.1)

Jesus Christ stands in mid of human history dividing it into BC and AD. No man ever talked like him. No man ever did the works he did. No man ever loved mankind as he loved. No man ever died for mankind like him. No man ever risen from death like him. No man ever changed the human history like him. No man ever changed a human being like him. He changed man-eaters into lovers of humankind. No one could ever influence mankind like him. He is incomparable. This is his-story that is history.

The birth of Jesus Christ

Mat 1:18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ happened in this way. When his mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, before they lived together she was discovered to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

Mat 1:19 Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to disgrace her, decided to divorce her secretly.

Mat 1:20 After he had thought about it, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said,

"Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for what has been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

Mat 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Jesus, because he is the one who will save his people from their sins."

Mat 1:22 Now all this happened to fulfill what was declared by the Lord through the prophet when he said,

Prophecy around 700 BC (Isa 7:14)

Mat 1:23 "See, a virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and they will name him Immanuel," which means, "God with us."

(Prophecy around 700 BC

Isa 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Isa 9:6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isa 9:7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will perform this.)

Mat 1:24 When Joseph got up from his sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary as his wife.

Mat 1:25 He did not marry her until she had given birth to a son; and he named him Jesus.

Shepherds hears good news from angels

Luk 2:7 and she gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was not any room for them in the inn.

Luk 2:8 In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, watching their flock during the night.

Luk 2:9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Luk 2:10 Then the angel said to them, "Stop being afraid! Listen! I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people.

Luk 2:11 Today your Savior, Christ the Lord, was born in the city of David.

Luk 2:12 And this will be a sign for you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger."

Luk 2:13 Suddenly a multitude of the Heavenly Army appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

Luk 2:14 "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to people who enjoy his favor!"

Luk 2:15 When the angels had left them and gone back to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see what has taken place that the Lord has told us about."

Luk 2:16 So they went quickly and found Mary and Joseph with the baby, who was lying in the manger.

Luk 2:17 When they saw this, they repeated what they had been told about this child.

Luk 2:18 All who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them,

Simeon see infant Jesus before his death as a fulfillment of prophecy

Luk 2:25 Now a man named Simeon was in Jerusalem. This man was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the one who would comfort Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

Luk 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die until he had seen the Lord's Christ.

Luk 2:27 Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple. When the parents brought the child Jesus to do for him what was customary under the law,

Luk 2:28 Simeon took the child in his arms and praised God, saying,

Luk 2:29 "Master, now you are allowing your servant to leave in peace according to your word.

Luk 2:30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,

Luk 2:31 which you prepared for all people to see-

Luk 2:32 a light that will reveal salvation to the gentiles and bring glory to your people Israel."

Luk 2:33 Jesus' father and mother kept wondering at the things being said about him.

Luk 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is destined to cause many in Israel to fall or rise. He will be a sign that will be disputed, Luk 2:35 so that the inner thoughts of many people might be revealed. Indeed, a sword will pierce your own soul, too."

Luk 2:36 Now Anna, a prophetess, was also there. She was a descendant of Phanel from the tribe of Asher. She was very old, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, Luk 2:37 and then as a widow for eighty-four years. She never left the temple, but continued to worship there night and day with times of fasting and prayer.

Luk 2:38 Just then she came forward and began to thank God and to speak about the child to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Wise men from east worship him

Mat 2:1 After Jesus had been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem.

Mat 2:2 and asked, "Where is the one who was born king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him."

Mat 2:10 When they saw the star, they were ecstatic with joy.

Mat 2:11 After they went into the house and saw the child with his mother Mary, they fell down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure sacks and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Jesus stayed back in temple

Luk 2:41 Every year Jesus' parents would go to Jerusalem for the Passover Festival.

Luk 2:42 When he was twelve years old, they went up to the festival as usual.

Luk 2:43 When the days of the festival were over, they left for home. The young man Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it.

Luk 2:44 They thought that he was in the group of travelers. After traveling for a day, they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.

Luk 2:45 When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching desperately for him.

Luk 2:46 Three days later they found him in the temple sitting among the teachers, listening to them, and asking them questions.

Luk 2:47 All who heard him were amazed at his intelligence and his answers.

Luk 2:48 When his parents saw him, they were shocked. His mother asked him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been worried sick looking for you!"

Luk 2:49 He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I had to be in my Father's house?"

Luk 2:50 But they did not understand what he said to them.

Luk 2:51 Then he went down with them and returned to Nazareth; and he remained in submission to them. (He was not in Kashmir in his childhood) His mother continued to treasure all these things in her heart.

Luk 2:52 Meanwhile, Jesus kept on growing in wisdom and maturity, and in favor with God and his fellow man.

Jesus baptised by John the Baptist

Mat 3:13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John.

Mat 3:14 But John tried to stop him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and are you coming to me?"

Mat 3:15 But Jesus answered him, "Let it be this way for now, for this is the proper way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then John let him.

Mat 3:16 When Jesus had been baptized, he immediately came up out of the water. Suddenly the heavens opened up for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him.

Mat 3:17 Then a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with him!"

Prophecy about baptism around 700 BC

Isa 40:3-5 The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of Jehovah(Jesus in New Testament); make level in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain: and the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it.

Jesus reveals about Nathaniel

Joh 1:45 Philip found Nathaniel and told him, "We have found the man about whom Moses in the Law and the Prophets wrote-Jesus, the son of Joseph, from Nazareth."

Joh 1:46 Nathaniel said to him, "Out of Nazareth? What good can that be?" Philip told him, "Come and see!"

Joh 1:47 Jesus saw Nathaniel coming toward him and said about him, "Look, a true Israelite, in whom there is no falsehood!"

Joh 1:48 Nathaniel said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, while you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

Joh 1:49 Nathaniel replied to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

Joh 1:50 Jesus said to him, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than that."

Joh 1:51 Then he said to him, "Truly, truly I tell all of you, you will see heaven standing open and the angels of God going up and coming down to the Son of Man."

Jesus convert water to wine

Joh 2:1 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there,

Joh 2:2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

Joh 2:3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They don't have any wine."

Joh 2:4 Jesus said to her, "How does that concern us, woman? My hour has not yet come."

Joh 2:5 His mother told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Joh 2:6 Now standing there were six stone water jars used for the Jewish rites of purification, each one holding from twenty to thirty gallons.

Joh 2:7 Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them up to the brim.

Joh 2:8 Then he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the man in charge of the banquet." So they took it.

Joh 2:9 When the man in charge of the banquet tasted the water that had become wine (without knowing where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew), he called for the bridegroom

Joh 2:10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the best wine first, and the cheap kind when people are drunk. But you have kept the best wine until now!"

Joh 2:11 Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee. He revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

Jesus reveals the secrets of life of Samaritan lady

Joh 4:5 So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

Joh 4:6 Jacob's Well was also there, and Jesus, tired out by the journey, sat down by the well. It was about twelve noon.

Joh 4:7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink."

Joh 4:8 For his disciples had gone off into town to buy food.

Joh 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews do not have anything to do with Samaritans.

Joh 4:10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Please give me a drink,' you would have been the one to ask him, and he would have given you living water."

Joh 4:11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you don't have a bucket, and the well is deep. Where are you going to get this living water?"

Joh 4:12 You're not greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it, along with his sons and his flocks, are you?"

Joh 4:13 Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks this water will become thirsty again.

Joh 4:14 But whoever drinks the water that I will give him will never become thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

Joh 4:15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I won't get thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Joh 4:16 He said to her, "Go and call your husband, and come back here."

Joh 4:17 The woman answered him, "I don't have a husband." Jesus said to her, "You are quite right in saying, 'I don't have a husband.'

Joh 4:18 For you have had five husbands, and the man you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true."

Joh 4:19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet!"

Joh 4:25 The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will tell us everything."

Joh 4:26 Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

Joh 4:28 Then the woman left her water jar and went back to town. She told the people,

Joh 4:29 "Come and see a man who told me everything I've ever done! Could he possibly be the Christ?"

Joh 4:30 The people left the town and started on their way to him.

Joh 4:39 Now many of the Samaritans of that town believed in Jesus because of the woman's testimony when she testified, "He told me everything I've ever done."

Joh 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there for two days.

Joh 4:41 And many more believed because of his word.

Joh 4:42 They kept telling the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard him ourselves, and we know that he really is the Savior of the world."

Jesus heals son of government official

Joh 4:46 So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine.

Meanwhile, in Capernaum there was a government official whose son was ill.

Joh 4:47 When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and asked him repeatedly to come down and heal his son, for he was about to die.

Joh 4:49 The official said to him, "Sir, please come down before my little boy dies."

Joh 4:50 Jesus said to him, "Go home. Your son will live." The man believed what Jesus told him and started on his way.

Joh 4:51 While he was on his way down, his servants met him and told him that his child was alive.

Joh 4:52 So he asked them at what hour he had begun to recover, and they told him, "The fever left him yesterday at one o'clock in the afternoon."

Joh 4:53 Then the father realized that this was the very hour when Jesus had told him, "Your son will live." And he himself believed, along with his whole family.

Joh 4:54 Now this was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

Jesus heals one who was sick for 38 years

Joh 5:2 Near the Sheep Gate in Jerusalem is a pool called Bethesda in Hebrew. It has five colonnades, Joh 5:3 and under these a large number of sick people were lying-blind, lame, or paralyzed-waiting for the movement of the water.

Joh 5:4 For at certain times an angel of the Lord would go down into the pool and stir up the water.

And the one who stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had.

Joh 5:5 One particular man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

Joh 5:6 When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to get well?"

Joh 5:7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I don't have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I'm trying to get there, someone else steps down ahead of me."

Joh 5:8 Jesus said to him, "Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk!"

Joh 5:9 The man immediately became well, and he picked up his mat and started walking.

Jesus heals leper

Mat 8:1 When Jesus came down from the hillside, large crowds followed him.

Mat 8:2 Suddenly a leper came up to him, fell down before him, and said, "Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean."

Mat 8:3 So Jesus reached out his hand, touched him, and said, "I do want to. Be made clean!" And instantly his leprosy was made clean.

Jesus drive out demons

Mar 1:22 The people were utterly amazed at his teaching, for he was teaching them like one with authority and not like their scribes.

Mar 1:23 Suddenly there was a man in their synagogue who had an unclean spirit. He screamed,

Mar 1:24 "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are-the Holy One of God!"

Mar 1:25 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"

Mar 1:26 At this, the unclean spirit shook the man, cried out with a loud voice, and came out of him.

Mar 1:27 All the people were so stunned that they kept saying to each other, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He tells even the unclean spirits what to do, and they obey him!"

Jesus works miracle for Simon

Luk 5:1 One day as the crowd was pressing in on him to listen to God's word, Jesus was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.

Luk 5:2 He saw two boats lying on the shore, but the fishermen had stepped out of them and were washing their nets.

Luk 5:3 So Jesus got into one of the boats (the one that belonged to Simon) and asked him to push out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and began to teach the crowds from the boat.

Luk 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Push out into deep water, and lower your nets for a catch."

Luk 5:5 Simon answered, "Master, we have worked hard all night and caught nothing. But if you say so, I'll lower the nets."

Luk 5:6 After the men had done this, they caught so many fish that the nets began to tear.

Luk 5:7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats until the boats began to sink.

Luk 5:8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees and said, "Leave me, Lord! I am a sinful man!"

Luk 5:9 For Simon and all the people who were with him were amazed at the number of fish they had caught,

Jesus heals the servant of centurion

Mat 8:5 When Jesus returned to Capernaum, a centurion came up to him and begged him repeatedly,

Mat 8:6 "Sir, my servant is lying at home paralyzed and in terrible pain."

Mat 8:7 Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

Mat 8:8 The centurion replied, "Sir, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed."

Mat 8:13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go. It will be done for you just as you have believed." And his servant was healed that very hour.

Jesus raises dead son of widow in Nain

Luk 7:11 Soon afterwards, Jesus went to a city called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd were going along with him.

Luk 7:12 As he approached the entrance to the city, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was with her.

Luk 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he felt compassion for her. He said to her, "You can stop crying."

Luk 7:14 Then he went up and touched the open coffin, and the men who were carrying it stopped. He said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!"

Luk 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

Luk 7:16 Fear gripped everyone, and they began to praise God, saying, "A great prophet has appeared among us," and "God has helped his people."

Luk 7:17 This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding countryside.

Jesus heals mother in law of Peter and all who came to him.

Mat 8:14 When Jesus went into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed, sick with a fever.

Mat 8:15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began serving him.

Jesus heals all from every diseases

Mat 8:16 When evening came, people brought to him many who were possessed by demons. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all those who were sick.

Mat 8:17 This was to fulfill what was declared by the prophet Isaiah when he said, "It was he who took our illnesses away and removed our diseases."

Mar 1:34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. However, he wouldn't allow the demons to speak because they knew who he was.

Jesus heals paralysed man.

Mar 2:2 So many crowds had gathered that there wasn't any room left for them, even in front of the door. Jesus was speaking the word to them

Mar 2:3 when some people came and brought him a paralyzed man being carried by four men.

Mar 2:4 Since they couldn't bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof over the place where he was. They dug through it and let down the cot on which the paralyzed man was lying.

Mar 2:5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

Mar 2:6 Now some scribes were sitting there, arguing among themselves,

Mar 2:7 "Why does this man talk this way? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

Mar 2:8 At once, Jesus knew in his spirit what they were saying to themselves. He said to them, "Why are you arguing about such things among yourselves?"

Mar 2:9 Which is easier: to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, pick up your cot, and walk'?

Mar 2:10 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man,

Mar 2:11 "I say to you, get up, pick up your cot, and go home!"

Mar 2:12 So the man got up, immediately picked up his cot, and went out before all of them. As a result, all of the people were amazed and began to glorify God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

Jesus heals a man with paralysed hand

Mar 3:1 Jesus went into the synagogue again, and a man with a paralyzed hand was there.

Mar 3:3 He said to the man with the paralyzed hand, "Come forward."

Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." The man held it out, and his hand was restored to health.

Storm and sea obeys Jesus

Mat 8:23 When Jesus got into the boat, his disciples went with him.

Mat 8:24 Suddenly a violent storm came up on the sea, so that the boat began to be swamped by the waves. Yet Jesus kept sleeping.

Mat 8:25 They went to him and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to die!"

Mat 8:26 He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you who have little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

Mat 8:27 The men were amazed and said, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him!"

Jesus drive out 6000 demons from demon possessed man

Mar 5:2 Just as Jesus stepped out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came out of the tombs and met him.

Mar 5:3 He lived among the tombs, and no one could restrain him any longer, not even with a chain.

Mar 5:4 He had often been restrained with shackles and chains but had snapped the chains apart and broken the shackles in pieces. No one could tame him.

Mar 5:5 Night and day he kept screaming among the tombs and on the mountainsides and kept cutting himself with stones.

Mar 5:6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell down in front of him,

Mar 5:7 screaming in a loud voice, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I command you in the name of God not to torture me!"

Mar 5:8 For Jesus had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

Mar 5:9 Then Jesus asked him, "What's your name?"

He said to him, "My name is Legion, (6000 demons) because there are many of us."

Mar 5:10 He kept pleading with Jesus not to send them out of the territory.

Mar 5:11 Now a large herd of pigs was grazing on a hillside nearby.

Mar 5:12 So the demons begged him, "Send us among the pigs, so that we can go into them!"

Mar 5:13 So he let them do this. The unclean spirits came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd of about 2,000 rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned there.

Mar 5:14 Now when those who had been taking care of the pigs ran away, they reported what had happened in the city and countryside. So the people went to see what had happened.

Mar 5:15 When they came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there dressed and in his right mind, they were frightened.

Mar 5:16 The people who had seen it told them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and the pigs.

Jesus heals paralysed man

Mat 9:1 After getting into a boat, Jesus crossed to the other side and came to his own city.

Mat 9:2 All at once some people brought him a paralyzed man lying on a stretcher. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, "Be courageous, son! Your sins are forgiven."

Mat 9:6 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man, "Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home!"

Mat 9:7 So the man got up and went home.

Mat 9:8 When the crowds saw this, they became frightened and glorified God for giving such authority to humans.

Jesus raised a dead girl and heals a lady suffering from bleeding for 12 years

Mar 5:22 Then a synagogue leader named Jairus arrived. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet

Mar 5:23 and begged him urgently, saying, "My little daughter is dying. Come and lay your hands on her so that she may get well and live."

Mar 5:24 So Jesus went with him. A huge crowd kept following him and jostling him.

Mar 5:25 Now there was a woman who had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years.

Mar 5:26 Although she had endured a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all of her money, she had not been helped at all but rather grew worse.

Mar 5:27 Since she had heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his robe.

Mar 5:28 For she had been saying, "If I can just touch his robe, I will get well."

Mar 5:29 Her bleeding stopped at once, and she felt in her body that she was healed from her illness.

Mar 5:30 Immediately Jesus became aware that power had gone out of him. So he turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

Mar 5:31 His disciples said to him, "You see the crowd jostling you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'"

Mar 5:32 But he kept looking around to see the woman who had done this.

Mar 5:33 So the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.

Mar 5:34 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be healed from your illness."

Mar 5:35 While he was still speaking, some people came from the synagogue leader's home and said, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher anymore?"

Mar 5:36 But when Jesus heard what they said, he told the synagogue leader, "Stop being afraid! Just keep on believing."

Mar 5:37 Jesus allowed no one to go further with him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.

Mar 5:38 When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw mass confusion. People were crying and sobbing loudly.

Mar 5:39 He entered the house and said to them, "Why all this confusion and crying? The child isn't dead but is sleeping."

Mar 5:40 They laughed and laughed at him. But he forced all of them outside. Then he took the child's father and mother, along with the men who were with him, and went into the room where the child was.

Mar 5:41 He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I tell you, get up!"

Mar 5:42 The little girl got up at once and started to walk, for she was twelve years old. Instantly they were overcome with astonishment.

Jesus healed blind men and demon driven out from another dumb man

Mat 9:27 As Jesus was traveling on from there, two blind men followed him, shouting, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

Mat 9:28 When he had gone into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus asked them, "Do you believe I can do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord!"

Mat 9:29 Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith, let it be done for you!"

Mat 9:30 And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly told them, "See to it that nobody knows about this."

Mat 9:31 But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that land.

Mat 9:32 As they were going out, a man who couldn't talk because he was demon-possessed was brought to him.

Mat 9:33 As soon as the demon had been driven out, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

Jesus gives authority to his disciples to do miracles

Mat 10:1 Then Jesus called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority over unclean spirits, so that they could drive them out and heal every disease and every illness.

Jesus heals blind and dumb person

Mat 12:22 Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and unable to talk was brought to him. Jesus healed him so that the man could speak and see.

Mat 12:23 All the crowds were amazed and kept saying, "This man isn't the Son of David, is he?"

Jesus feeds 5000 men plus with five loaves of bread and two fish

Mat 14:14 When he got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd. He had compassion for them and healed their sick.

Mat 14:15 Now when evening came, the disciples went to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and it's already late. Send the crowds away so that they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

Mat 14:16 But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

Mat 14:17 They told him, "We don't have anything here except five loaves of bread and two fish."

Mat 14:18 He said, "Bring them here to me."

Mat 14:19 Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed them. Then he broke the loaves in pieces and gave them to his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Mat 14:20 All of them ate and were filled. Then the disciples picked up what was left of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

Mat 14:21 Now those who had eaten were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

Jesus walks over the sea

Mat 14:22 Jesus immediately had the disciples get into a boat and cross to the other side ahead of him, while he sent the crowds away.

Mat 14:23 After dismissing the crowds, he went up on a hillside by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone.

Mat 14:24 By this time the boat was in the middle of the sea and was being battered by the waves, for the wind was against them.

Mat 14:25 Shortly before dawn he came to them, walking on the sea.

Mat 14:26 When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified and said, "It's a ghost!" And they screamed in terror.

Mat 14:27 Immediately Jesus said to them, "Have courage! It is I. Stop being afraid!"

Mat 14:28 Peter answered him, "Lord, if it's you, order me to come to you on the water."

Mat 14:29 Jesus said, "Come on!" So Peter got down out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came to Jesus.

Mat 14:30 But when he noticed the strong wind, he was frightened. As he began to sink, he shouted, "Lord, save me!"

Mat 14:31 At once Jesus reached out his hand, caught him, and said to him, "You who have so little faith, why did you doubt?"

Mat 14:32 As they got into the boat, the wind stopped blowing.

Mat 14:33 Then the men in the boat began to worship Jesus, saying, "You certainly are the Son of God!"

Mat 14:34 They crossed over and came ashore at Gennesaret.

Mat 14:35 When the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word throughout that region and brought him all who were sick.

Mat 14:36 They kept begging him to let them touch just the tassel of his garment, and all who touched it were completely healed.

Jesus saves a prostitute

Joh 8:1 Jesus, however, went to the Mount of Olives.

Joh 8:2 At daybreak he appeared again in the temple, and all the people came to him. So he sat down and began to teach them.

Joh 8:3 But the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. After setting her before them,

Joh 8:4 they said to him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the very act of adultery.

Joh 8:5 Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women to death. What do you say?"

Joh 8:7 When they persisted in questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the person among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

Joh 8:9 When they heard this, they went away one by one, beginning with the oldest, and he was left alone with the woman standing there.

Joh 8:10 Then Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are your accusers? Hasn't anyone condemned you?"

Joh 8:11 She said, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "I don't condemn you either. Go home, and from now on do not sin any more."

Jesus heals a blind man from birth

Joh 9:1 As he was walking along, he observed a man who had been blind from birth.

Joh 9:6 he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he spread the mud on the man's eyes

Joh 9:7 and told him, "Go and wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated "Sent One"). So he went off and washed and came back seeing.

Jesus raise Lazarus 4 days after his death

Joh 11:20 As soon as Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home.

Joh 11:21 Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

Joh 11:22 But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give it to you."

Joh 11:23 Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again."

Joh 11:24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

Joh 11:25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The person who believes in me, even though he dies, will live.

Joh 11:26 Indeed, everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe that?"

Joh 11:27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into the world."

Joh 11:28 When she had said this, she went away and called her sister Mary and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you!"

Joh 11:29 As soon as Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

Joh 11:30 Now Jesus had not yet arrived at the village but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

Joh 11:31 When the Jews who had been with her, consoling her in the house, saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, thinking that she had gone to the tomb to cry there.

Joh 11:32 As soon as Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell down at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

Joh 11:33 When Jesus saw her crying, and the Jews who had come with her crying, he was greatly troubled in spirit and deeply moved.

Joh 11:34 He said, "Where have you put him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

Joh 11:35 Jesus burst into tears.

Joh 11:36 So the Jews said, "See how much he loved him!"

Joh 11:37 But some of them said, "Surely the one who opened the eyes of the blind man could have kept this man from dying, couldn't he?"

if you believed you would see God's glory, didn't I?"

Joh 11:38 Groaning deeply again, Jesus came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

Joh 11:39 Jesus said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, told him, "Lord, there must be a stench by now, because he's been dead for four days."

Joh 11:40 Jesus said to her, "I told you that Joh 11:41 So they removed the stone. Then Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me.

Joh 11:42 I know that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me."

Joh 11:43 After saying this, he shouted with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

Joh 11:44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet tied with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a handkerchief. Jesus told them, "Untie him, and let him go."

Mar 7:27 But he kept telling her, "First let the children be filled. It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the puppies."

Mar 7:28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. Yet even the puppies under the table eat some of the children's crumbs."

Mat 15:31 As a result, the crowd was amazed to see those who were unable to talk speaking, the crippled healed, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. So they praised the God of Israel.

Mat 15:32 Then Jesus called his disciples and said, "I have compassion for the crowd because they have already been with me for three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away without food, or they may faint on the road."

Mat 15:33 The disciples asked him, "Where in the wilderness are we to get enough bread to feed such a crowd?"

Mat 15:34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves of bread do you have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

Mar 8:24 The man looked up and said, "I see people, but they look like trees walking around."

Mat 17:18 Then Jesus rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed that very hour.

Luk 13:10 Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

Luk 13:11 A woman was there who had a spirit that had disabled her for eighteen years. She was hunched over and completely unable to stand up straight.

Luk 17:12 As he was going into a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance

Luk 17:13 and shouted, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

Luk 17:14 When he saw them, he told them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." While they were going, they were made clean.

Luk 17:15 But one of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back and praised God with a loud voice.

Luk 17:16 He fell on his face at Jesus' feet and thanked him. Now the man was a Samaritan.

Luk 17:17 Jesus asked, "Ten men were made clean, weren't they? Where are the other nine?"

Mar 10:48 Many people sternly told him to be quiet, but he started shouting even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Mar 10:49 So Jesus stopped and said, "Call him!" So they called the blind man and told him, "Have courage! Get up. He's calling you."

Mar 10:50 He threw off his coat, jumped up, and went to Jesus.

Mar 10:51 Then Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "Rabbouni, I want to see again."

Luk 19:4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see Jesus, who was going to pass that way.

Luk 19:5 When Jesus came to the tree, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down! I must stay at your house today."

Luk 19:6 Zacchaeus came down quickly and was glad to welcome him into his home.

Luk 19:7 But all the people who saw this began to complain, saying, "He went to be the guest of a notorious sinner!"

Mat 21:9 Both the crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed him kept shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! How blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Mat 21:10 When he came into Jerusalem, the whole city was trembling with excitement. The people were asking, "Who is this?"

Mat 21:11 The crowds kept saying, "This is the prophet Jesus, the man from Nazareth in Galilee."

Mat 21:14 Blind and lame people came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

Luk 22:48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

Luk 22:49 When those who were around him saw what was about to take place, they asked, "Lord, should we strike with our swords?"

Luk 22:50 Then one of them struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear.

Luk 22:51 But Jesus said, "No more of this!" So he touched his ear and healed him.

Luk 22:52 Then Jesus said to the high priests, the temple police, and the elders, who had come for him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a bandit?"

Luk 22:53 While I was with you day after day in the temple, you didn't lay a hand on me. But this is your hour, when darkness reigns!"

Mat 27:30 Then they spit on him and took the stick and hit him repeatedly on his head.

Mat 27:31 When they had finished making fun of him, they stripped him of the robe, put his own clothes back on him, and led him away to crucify him.

Mat 27:33 When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means "Skull Place"),

Mat 27:42 "He saved others but can't save himself!
He is the king of Israel. Let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.

Mat 27:43 He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he cares for him. After all, he said, 'I am the Son of God,'"

Mat 27:45 Now from noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Prophecy around 700BC about crucifixion

Isa 53:1 The people reply, "Who would have believed what we now report? Who could have seen the LORD's hand in this?"

Isa 53:2 It was the will of the LORD that his servant grow like a plant taking root in dry ground. He had no dignity or beauty to make us take notice of him. There was nothing attractive about him, nothing that would draw us to him.

Isa 53:3 We despised him and rejected him; he endured suffering and pain. No one would even look at him--- we ignored him as if he were nothing.

Isa 53:4 "But he endured the suffering that should have been ours, the pain that we should have borne. All the while we thought that his suffering was punishment sent by God.

Isa 53:5 But because of our sins he was wounded, beaten because of the evil we did. We are healed by the punishment he suffered, made whole by the blows he received.

Isa 53:6 All of us were like sheep that were lost, each of us going his own way. But the LORD made the punishment fall on him, the punishment all of us deserved.

Isa 53:7 "He was treated harshly, but endured it humbly; he never said a word. Like a lamb about to be slaughtered, like a sheep about to be sheared, he never said a word.

Isa 53:8 He was arrested and sentenced and led off to die, and no one cared about his fate. He was put to death for the sins of our people.

Isa 53:9 He was placed in a grave with those who are evil, he was buried with the rich, even though he had never committed a crime or ever told a lie."

Isa 53:10 The LORD says, "It was my will that he should suffer; his death was a sacrifice to bring forgiveness. And so he will see his descendants; he will live a long life, and through him my purpose will succeed.

Isa 53:11 After a life of suffering, he will again have joy; he will know that he did not suffer in vain. My devoted servant, with whom I am pleased, will bear the punishment of many and for his sake I will forgive them.

Isa 53:12 And so I will give him a place of honor, a place among the great and powerful. He willingly gave his life and shared the fate of evil men. He took the place of many sinners and prayed that they might be forgiven."

Jesus saves thief crucified with him

Luk 23:39 Now one of the criminals hanging there kept insulting him, saying, "You are the Christ, aren't you? Save yourself and us!"

Luk 23:40 But the other one rebuked him, saying, "Aren't you afraid of God, since you are suffering the same penalty?"

Luk 23:41 We have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."

Luk 23:42 Then he went on to say, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom!"

Luk 23:43 Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Mat 27:46 About three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?", which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Mat 27:47 When some of the people standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling for Elijah."

Mat 27:49 But the others kept saying, "Wait! Let's see if Elijah will come and save him."

Mat 27:50 Then Jesus cried out with a loud voice again and gave up his spirit.

Mat 27:51 Suddenly the curtain in the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom, the earth shook, the rocks were split open,

Mat 27:52 the tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had died were raised.

Mat 27:54 When the centurion and those guarding Jesus with him saw the earthquake and the other things that were taking place, they were terrified and said, "This man certainly was the Son of God!"

Jesus resurrected from death

Mat 28:1 After the Sabbath, around dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to take a look at the tomb.

Mat 28:2 Suddenly there was a powerful earthquake. For an angel of the Lord had come down from heaven, stepped forward, rolled the stone away, and was sitting on it.

Mat 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

Mat 28:4 Because they were so afraid of him, the guards shook and became like dead men.

Mat 28:5 But the angel said to the women, "Stop being afraid! For I know you're looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

Mat 28:6 He is not here. He has been raised, just as he said. Come and see the place where he was lying.

Mat 28:7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead. He is going ahead of you into Galilee, and you will see him there. Remember, I have told you!"

Mat 28:8 So they quickly left the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples.

Mat 28:9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" They went up to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

Mat 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, "Stop being afraid! Go and tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and there they will see me."

Mat 28:11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and told the high priests all that had happened.

Mat 28:12 So they met with the elders and agreed on a plan to give the soldiers a large amount of money.

Mat 28:13 They said, "Say that his disciples came at night and stole him while you were sleeping.

Mat 28:14 If this is reported to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."

Mat 28:15 So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. This story has been spread among the Jews to this day.

Mat 28:16 The eleven disciples went into Galilee to the hillside to which Jesus had directed them.

Mat 28:17 When they saw him, they worshiped him, though some had doubts.

Mat 28:18 Then Jesus came up and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Mat 28:19 Therefore, as you go, disciple all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,

Mat 28:20 teaching them to obey all that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you each and every day until the end of the age."

Ascension of Jesus

Mar 16:15 Then he said to them, "As you go into all the world, proclaim the gospel to the whole creation.

Mar 16:16 The one who believes and is baptized will be saved, but the one who doesn't believe will be condemned.

Mar 16:17 "These are the signs that will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mar 16:18 they will pick up snakes in their hands; even if they drink any deadly poison it will not hurt them; and they will place their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Mar 16:19 So the Lord Jesus, after talking with them, was taken up to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

Act 1:9, he was taken up while they were watching, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Act 1:10 While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, two men in white robes were standing right beside them.

Act 1:11 They asked, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This same Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you saw him go up into heaven."

Dear brother/sister,

What do you think about Jesus. He changed my life and he can change yours. He is still alive. He is still same miracle working God and he can do what He did 2000 years before if you believe. There is no person anywhere in the world who was resurrected from death. If you want to know more about him, please write to me. Also please forward this to other friends. May God bless you. Jesus Loves You.
